T. Morgan Moore Slain By Negro

W. H. Turner Colored Held

TROOPS GUARD JAIL

Capture of Turner Made Two Hours
After Crime—Negro Attempts Assault on Miss Pearl Clark.

T. Morgan Moore, thirty-five years old, a machinist who was employed at the Naval Torpedo Station, this city, was shot to death about 12.30 o'clock Sunday morning while in an automobile parked near the South end of the highway bridge by William H. Turner, a negro, about fifty years old, and Turner then made an ineffectual effort to assault Miss Pearl Clark, fiancée of Moore, who is secretary to Representative Fred A. Britten of Chicago and who resides in Washington, who was in the automobile with Mr. Moore.

Two hours after the murder and attempted assault Turner was captured in Alexandria County near the lumber yard of Joseph L. Crupper and lodged in jail at Fort Myer Heights and later admitted the crime.

The body of Moore was first taken to Emergency Hospital, Washington, where life was pronounced extinct and yesterday it was brought to this city and taken to Wheatley's mortuary chapel where an inquest was held at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Coroner E. H. Swain, M. D., of Alexandria County. The jury heard the testimony of only three witnesses, among them being Sheriff A. C. Clements, George F. Marcey, deputy sheriff and Dr. Swain told of the nature of the wound inflicted by the negro.

The verdict subsequently brought in follows:

"That Thomas Morgan Moore came to his death from a gunshot wound over the heart caused by a weapon in the hands of William H. Turner, a negro, said to reside in southwest Washington, and that the fatal shot was fired with intent to kill, and also that the said William H. Turner before the murder demanded money of the said Thomas Morgan Moore and attempted to rape the young lady companion of Thomas Morgan Moore.

The jury was composed of the following residents of Alexandria County: William O. Williams, J. M. Jones, C. C. Donaldson, John Pendleton, David J. Harrison and A. W. Mills.

The testimony of Sheriff Clements before the jury was to the effect that Turner had asked Mr. Moore for a dollar and that the negro afterward grabbed Miss Clark and she gave him her jewelry in order to defend her honor and the negro remarked "I don't want your jewelry." Moore after being shot remarked to his fiancée "Pearl, he's got me." The sheriff stated that the murder occurred between 12 and 12.40 o'clock Sunday morning and that the arrest of Turner was effected at 2.40 o'clock Sunday morning.

Witness said that Turner admitted having shot Moore with a .38 Colt's revolver, and he added there were six bullets in the revolver when he recovered it, although Turner told him that after firing it he reloaded the weapon.

George Marcey, deputy sheriff, stated to the jury that he was called at 2 o'clock Sunday morning and he accompanied the sheriff and party to the spot where the murder was committed and getting to Rosslyn in front of Joseph Crupper's livery mill he saw a man whom he suspected was the fugitive and he grabbed him. The suspect had his hands in his pockets. Z. O. Kines, the jailor, got behind him and seized the weapon and Marcey said he struck him with his black-jack. Two rings, a watch and gloves were found nearby and also a handkerchief. The prisoner, he stated, was taken to the county jail and locked up. His thumb was tied up and when questioned the prisoner claimed that he was injured on the thumb by his blow from the black-jack. Witness said the bandage was stripped and it was shown to be a gunshot wound and a wound in the thigh of the prisoner also was found.

The prisoner later he testified went to the couple and demanded a dollar. Moore whereupon the young lady jumped out of the machine, being frightened, and the prisoner chased her and at this juncture Moore fired at the negro. The negro later threw Miss Clark down an attempted to attack her.

The confession of the negro was made to the officials of Alexandria County in the presence of Commonwealth's Attorney Frank L. Ball after a severe examination by Mr. Ball, Sheriff Clements and Detective Sergeant A. E. Scrivener of the Washington police department.

Attracted by the shooting and the cries of the young woman four Alexandrians came to her assistance. They were Charles J. Johnson, 919 Duke street; Roy F. Rogers, 1001 Duke street and F. E. Poote, 208 North Washington street and G. J. Justice, 624 King street.

After they made an ineffectual search for the negro they took Miss Clark and rushed her to the first precinct Washington police station. Miss Clark was overcome from her experience with the negro, her clothing being torn and her hair disheveled. After telling her story to the Washington police she was conveyed to her home at Rutland Courts Apartment, Seventeenth and Riggs place, northwest, Washington, where she is under the care of a physician and trained nurse.

The party that accomplished the arrest of Turner was composed of Sheriff A. C. Clements, Deputy Sheriff George Marcey, Jailor K. O. Kines, and J. I. Signor, the latter a brother-in-law of Mr. Marcey.

The negro appeared little concerned over his arrest according to Commonwealth's Attorney Ball and told his story in a manner which indicated that he was not in the least bit frightened.

Attorney Ball says that he understands that Turner who is known as "Cap" Turner has a brother who lives in Hell's bottom in Alexandria County and he believes that Turner is responsible for other hold ups that have occurred in the county.

Commonwealth's Attorney Ball stated that he has no apprehension regarding the safety of the prisoner owing to the fact that the county jail is in such close proximity to the troops at Fort Myer. Forty Myer troops he said are only 900 yards away from the jail and he could secure three companies of cavalry in a moments notice of an attack on the jail.

News of the murder of Mr. Moore was received here yesterday morning and when the circumstances became known there was strong talk of lynching the fiend. The Alexandria police were notified from Washington and they at once notified Mr. Moore's father.

Mr. Moore was quite popular and had a large circle of friends and relatives here who expressed sincere sympathy at his death. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Moore of 111 Duke street, and was a machinist by trade and for the past fifteen years had followed that business. Most of the time he was employed in that capacity at the Washington Navy Yard and for some time had been employed under that department at the Naval Torpedo Station this city. He was a widower, his wife Mrs. Cora Wilkins Moore having died October 15, 1918 and he lived with his father-in-law, James M. Wilkins, 509 1-2 South Fairfax street. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Annie Moore, thirteen years old. In addition he leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moore and two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Edward Walker, Miss Bessie Moore, Joseph Moore and Ezekiel Moore all of this city.

Mr. Moore was prominently identified with the community and was a member of the local lodge of the

SABBATH SCHOOLS ATHLETIC MEET

To Be Held On Fair Grounds
At Fairfax Courthouse
July 24

BANNERS TO WINNERS

To Be Participated In By Boys and Girls From 16 to 22 Under Alexandria Sunday School District

The Alexandria Sunday School district, which comprises Alexandria city, Alexandria and Fairfax counties is to have a monster Sunday school athletic meet at Fairfax July 24th. This was decided at a district conference held at Clarendon yesterday afternoon with Mrs. F. T. Israel, chairman of the young people's division of the district, presiding.

The meet will be for young men and young ladies from sixteen years of age to twenty-two and will be composed of standard track and field events. K. E. Wallace, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. was chosen chairman of the athletic committee and it is the purpose of the committee to have the events about equally divided between the boys and girls.

The meet is to be held in the fair grounds at Fairfax and is to be an all day affair with a basket dinner at noon. A tennis and volley ball tournament will be staged in the morning and any preliminaries that it may be necessary to run in order to get down to smaller numbers, will take place in the morning. In the afternoon the finals will be run off and it is thought that the best athletes in the district will be in the competition.

Two banners are to be offered to the winners, one to the county of unit securing the largest number of points, and the other to the school securing the largest number of points. The list of events is to be mailed to the Sunday schools of the district soon and it is thought that many athletes will begin training at once for the big event.

THRALL WILL COACH LOCAL OARSMEN

Walter Thrall, former coach of the Potomac Boat Club of Washington and one of the greatest oarsmen developed by that organization, has been engaged to handle the local crew, he will take charge of the squad today.

Carl Mueller who has done yeoman service in this capacity for several years was unable to assume the responsibility owing to pressure of business.

The hardest kind of work will be necessary to have the squad in shape for the Southern Regatta to be held here July 10th, but the solving of the coaching problem has caused smiles to replace many a worried look around the Old Dominion Club house.

Thrall has a number of friends in Alexandria and will have the hearty co-operation of every member of the club.

Concert a Success

Boys Band of Baltimore Scores Hit at Sacred Concert

A large and appreciative audience yesterday afternoon attended the sacred concert in the Richmond theatre given by St. Mary's Industrial School Band of Baltimore. The players and soloists were, repeatedly encoered and the audience was loud in its praise of the band.

Vocal solos were given by Thomas Cantwell, Bernard Fitzgerald and George Dowden, accompanied by Gates Rupp, all of Washington. These boys are making a tour of this section in order to raise funds to help build their school which was destroyed by fire about a year ago. The affair was a big success financially.

At the conclusion of the concert the boys were entertained at dinner served by the ladies of St. Mary's Church in the Lyceum Hall.

MOORE'S STATEMENT

Former Secretary, It Is Believed, Will Exert Strength on Account of Eminent Fitness for Position.

Washington, May 24.—Washington is considering very seriously the availability of Senator Carter Glass for the presidency, and there may develop a pronounced movement within the party, irrespective of sectional considerations, to make Virginia's junior Senator the nominee at San Francisco. This view is reflected in a statement given out yesterday by Representative R. Walton Moore, in which, voicing the opinions of scores of Democratic representatives from all parts of the country, he said:

"Editorials in Virginia papers are in line with editorial comments in the New York and other newspapers. Senator Glass' friends certainly propose to make an earnest fight, and among them are prominent and influential public men from every part of the country. No one can discuss the matter with members of the House with whom he served and others who are familiar with his record without realizing that his support is not going to be in any way perfunctory, or confined to his own State.

"On every hand his eminent fitness for the office, due to his long experience and his great ability, is recognized. His friends point to the fact that few Americans have ever had to their credit such an important example of statesmanship of the most

a 30 Per Cent Advance in Men's Wearing Apparel

New York, May 24.—Clothing prices will increase by 30 per cent next fall, despite the efforts of the government to prevent it, according to Frederick T. Frazer, editor of The Haberdasher. "Nothing is to be gained by permitting the public to delude itself into the belief that the prices of men's and boys' apparel have reached the peak and are on the decline," he said today, "when the contrary is the fact. Nothing short of a nation-wide cataclysm can prevent an increase in prices next autumn."

ALEXANDRIAN MURDERED

During the wee sma' hours of yesterday morning a telephone message from Washington stating that T. Morgan Moore, of this city, had been murdered by a negro footpad a short distance south of the railroad bridge over the Potomac, startled the officers on duty at the station house in this city. The message stated that Mr. Moore had met his death while protecting a young woman who had been seated with him in an automobile from a vicious negro bent upon highway robbery and assault. The murder had occurred about 12:30 o'clock and the announcement was received here between two and three o'clock. A member of the force was directed to proceed to the home of the deceased on Fairfax street, between Wilkes and Gibson, and apprise the members of his late wife's family, with whom he had been living. A little daughter, his only child, had to listen to the sad news. Less than two years ago the mother had imprinted her dying kiss to her only child. Now the father, who had never shown his affection for his little one, more precious since the breaking of the family trio by the passing away of his life partner, has also passed into the unseen world, and the innocent little one was made to realize that while before motherless, she is now without either parent—an orphan.

The full particulars of this early morning murder was given elsewhere in the Gazette. The substance of the sad story is that the young Alexandrian gave up his life while defending the honor of a young woman who was under his escort.

The age of knight errantry was a custom of the past, but the spirit of chivalry is still in the world, and will ever remain in the true and brave. We occasionally read of cases where young women are left to their fate by escorts who suffer from cold feet at the approach of danger. Our young lamented Alexandrian was not of that type. He remained with his companion and was true to her unto death.

It is gratifying to know that the fiend who committed the murder is not at large. He is now cringing in a steel cage in the Alexandria county jail, fearing the sudden appearance of a lynching party. We hope the good people of our city will allow the law to take its course.

ARRAIGNS CAPITAL CITY

Many years ago a prominent Congressman wrote a book entitled, "If Christ Should Come to Washington." The publication was a napose of alleged social conditions, in which the writer, in the guise of fiction, painted the pictures of alleged immorality on the part of certain representatives of the powers that flourished at that time. It was said that a man, an adventurer, upon receiving the capital city asked a person he met on the street to direct him to one of the principal temples of Ashtar. The visitor was shown one of the government department buildings.

The augean stables, however, have been purified since that time, and sections of the city known as White-chapels in that day have long since been obliterated.

Judging from the many announcements of church services which appear in Washington papers on Saturdays it seems there are enough places of worship in the city of magnificent distances to meet the spiritual tastes of all classes and yet have been led to suppose that Washington was largely a city of churchgoers; hence we were astonished to read the following in a dispatch from Charlotte, N. C.

"Rev. Dr. Andrew J. Bird, of Richmond, addressing the Presbyterian Assembly Saturday, declared Washington city is one of the most strategic home mission fields in the United States. There are people there who know less about Jesus Christ than the Chinamen in the heart of China," he said. Two things are needed, he said, to remedy the situation—earnest workers there and consecrated leaders at home. A Southern Presbyterian Church is needed in Washington, he urged, because so many of the people there are from the South.

SOUTH TRIUMPHANT

Out of a depth of poverty in 1865 far beyond what Germany or France or Belgium have endured; out of a Bolshevik ten years of reconstruction due to unscrupulous "carpet baggers" out of a labor chaos such as no other country has had to endure; out of the loss between 1865 and 1900 by emigration of 5,000,000 native whites—a greater drain than four years of war and ten years of Bolshevik reconstruction; out of many long weary years of denunciation by politicians and hostile "black and white" papers; out of economic slavery of all its cotton growers by reason of the effort of Europe and New England to beat down and hold down the price of cotton below the actual cost of production, the South has emerged triumphant and is beginning to see abounding prosperity which lifts the burden from all classes and thrills the South with "the music of progress, the song of the furnace, the hum of the saw and the whirr of the spindle." The above observation is made by the Manufacturers' Record which also says:

"No wonder the South sings a song of gladness. No wonder it is busy building factories and dwellings and highways and schools and churches. In these things it must fill up the vacuum of half a century, during which it was busy trying to save Anglo-Saxon civilization in this region, which for years was in danger of becoming a San Domingo or a Haiti, and busy trying to shake out a bare existence while it saw other sections rolling in almost boundless wealth."

"The South's day has now dawned, the sun of prosperity is lighting up the dark places and hastening on to midday splendor."

"Surely every patriotic American, it matters not where he may live or what his politics, can rejoice that prosperity reigns where poverty like a mighty pest had for fifty years covered one third of the nation's population and held back the full development of the most richly endowed region on earth."

WHERE THE MONEY GOES

More than a hundred millions a month is the amount which the collection of the luxury tax reveals as the expenditures on luxuries in New York alone. Making every allowance for the somewhat liberal government interpretation of a luxury, the figures reveal phenomenal extravagance. Many of these spenders are visitors to the city, no doubt, and their activities might make something like a proportional intelligence; but New York has always been the especial paradise of those who are soon parted from their money.

There is every reason to believe that the people who were made rich by the war are chief exponents of this undimmed lavishness. But it is hardly obvious that wage earners who are making more money than they ever dreamed of making before have also fallen into extravagant habits. It might be pertinent to inquire if the necessary cost of living is responsible in every case for the demand for higher wages. The persons of moderate means who see no chance of larger incomes have to get on as best they can without even these simple luxuries hardly to be distinguished from necessities.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

TRIBUTE TO THE GRAY

(Communicated)
Alexandria has laid her wreath of tribute on the graves of her sons who were the gray. The occasion was a most solemn one. The banner of the Lost Cause again floated in the breeze, a symbol of the loyalty that triumphed over defeat. The Confederate uniform was here and there in evidence, not worn in a spirit of empty, or of reconstructed citizenship, but donned in the pride of service rendered in devotion to ideals that survive civil strife and that constitute the most highly prized legacy of the South's chivalric past. Veterans of three wars could well be in the line of march—grandfathers who fought with Lee and Jackson, fathers who served with such gallant men as the late Colonel Roosevelt and General Wheeler in the war with Spain, and grandsons who followed the Stars and Stripes to Pearly and Lorraine. The column symbolized patriotism in its truest form, a patriotism that recognizes no sacrifices as too great, no burden as too heavy, when duty calls. It typified that kind of loyalty that we are proud to call American. Time has not dimmed the glory of the Confederacy. On the contrary it has ennobled the tragedy of 1861 and given it its true perspective. In the passing of years the South has suffered no change of heart as to her heroes in gray. She cherishes them as dearly today when her young men are fresh from service in the cause of a united American as she did in the days when she knew the bitterness of civil strife. The colors of the Confederacy that fell and of the Union that survives are equally sanctified by the Southern blood that was poured out in defense of both. Alexandrians salute the Stars and Stripes as great a remembrance because this day of memorial they bare their heads before the Stars and Bars. God bless the remnant of those who did their duty as they saw it, and when they were mastered out—as they must be some day—may they cross over the river and rest under the shade of the trees.

BARACA—WHAT IT MEANS

The word is an abbreviation of the Bible word "Baruchah," shortened in order to get it into a class pin.

In III Chron. 20:26 we read that the children of Israel, after their victory over the Moabites, held a praise service in a valley which they named "Baruchah," meaning "blessing."

They were busy three days carrying from the battlefield the spoils of victory. They were happy over their success and gathered themselves together to bless and praise God.

"Baruchah" was also a chief of one of the divisions of six hundred men who were loyal to King David. I Chron. 12:1, 2, 3.

Just as the word indicates—happy or blessed—we strive to be. We not only try to bless everyone with whom we come in contact, but also make them feel happier for having been with us.

We aim in our organization to make each man feel that he is his class; not the property of the teacher. We try to arouse a strong class spirit and an enthusiasm for the Baraca as a pride in its success.

"Young men at work for young men" all standing by the Bible and Bible School and the Church."

The J. R. N. Curtin Memorial Baraca-Class of the First Baptist Church extends a cordial welcome to all young men who are not members of some other class, to visit us, and enroll with us. Class assemblies at 9:30 a. m., sharp.

will have the support of nearly 500 delegates in the San Francisco convention.

Opponents of Mr. Palmer and of the administration combined in an effort to defeat the Attorney General in his home State. But the Pennsylvania Democracy refused to support any one but Mr. Palmer. An effort to swing the anti-Palmer vote in the State to former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo was a total failure, and official returns show that at least 75 of the 76 Pennsylvania delegates will be for Palmer.

"It is now possible to compute with some accuracy the standing of the Attorney General as to delegates in the convention. According to my calculations, Mr. Palmer will have the votes of 479 1-2 delegates, I give 275 delegates to other candidates, and would classify 337 1-2 votes as doubtful.

REMOVES SWITCH ON COURT'S ORDER

removal of this switch which was regarded as a menace to the safety of vehicles and especially fire apparatus. The railway company, however, only decided to take action after the court issued the order.

The matter in its last stages came before city council and that body asked for its removal and next came the court proceedings which the railway company was subject to. News of its removal is received with gratifications not only by persons whose places of business are located along the thoroughfare on which it is located but also by drivers of the fire apparatus and motor vehicles and others.

That someone has not been killed at this point as a result of the congestion at times is regarded as a miracle. The electric trolleys will continue to stop at King and Washington streets and also King and Columbus streets.

CORN, PORK AND SUGAR TUMBLE

Sharp Declines Reported in New York and Chicago

CLOTHES ARE LOWER

Large Part of Liquidation Ascribed to Further Sealing Down of Credits by Banking Institutions.

New York, May 24.—Influenced by the nation-wide price-cutting agitation that is steadily gaining ground, the principal commodity markets of the country yesterday continued to "mark down" quoted values. Cotton, sugar and corn options, broke violently here and in Chicago and cereals and provisions, including pork, also suffered sharp reactions. Significance was attached to the drop in the pork prices as marking the first pronounced break in high-priced foodstuffs.

The Stock Exchange showed improvement on a sharp recovery of Liberty bonds and Victory notes.

A large part of yesterday's liquidation in cotton and grains was attributed to the further sealing down of credits by banking institutions here and in other reserve centers, evidently in conformity with the request of the Federal Reserve Board.

In the local cotton market, May contracts broke almost 400 points, with equally sharp reactions in New Orleans. The Liverpool market also reported substantial reactions.

Banks in the uptown or wholesale drygoods district reported additional loan contraction and most of the retail shops advertised "cuts" of 25 to 40 per cent. in women's wearing apparel.

Chicago, May 22.—Prices came down helter-skelter yesterday on the Board of Trade. All grain and provisions joined in the tumble. Corn and pork underwent extreme breaks, respectively 7 3-8 cents a bushel and $2.06 a barrel, July delivery of corn touching as low as $1.64 1-8 and July pork $34.75.

Belief that a drastic order would be issued for the railroads to move grain on a priority basis was largely responsible for the selling stampede. Much of the unloading appeared to be by holders who no longer saw a chance for profits on the bull side of the market.

The downward sweep was so rapid that it was almost impossible to fill orders at blackboard quotations. Houses with country connections were especially active in the selling. Tightening of credits received continued notice as a bearish factor, and so, too did extension of department store price cutting in widely separated cities.

Efforts to stop losses added to the wildness of trading in the last hour and instead of reacting the market plunged downward with greatly accelerated momentum. Almost panicky conditions prevailed in the final 16 minutes. The close was demoralized at the lowest point of the day for corn, $1.58 to $1.59 July, a drop of 11 1-4c. to 13 1-2c. in 24 hours.

KNOX'S PEACE UP TO WILSON.

House Accepts Senate Bill, 228 to 139, Not Enough to Pass Over Veto

The Knox resolution declaring peace with Germany and Austria-Hungary will be formally laid before President Wilson today.

This was the plan of the Republican leaders in Congress last night, after the Senate substitute for the Porter resolution had been accepted by the House.

The vote in the House to accept the Knox draft was 228 to 139, with one Representative voting present and 14 paired. This majority fell 17 votes short of the two-thirds required to override a presidential veto, and the indications are that it will be impossible to overcome this shortage, even in the event of a full attendance of the House.

Democratic leaders pointed out that they would need only four additional votes to make it impossible to override the veto with all the members of the House present and voting.

Representative Flood, Democrat of Virginia, who led the fight against the resolution, declared there is "not the slightest chance in the world that the President will not veto this resolution." He and other Democratic leaders were of the opinion that the President will "shoot" it back to Congress just as soon as he can write his veto message.

Some of the Democrats expressed the belief that the peace treaty will be sent back with the veto. Others, however, doubted that the President will follow that course.

Nineteen Democrats and one independent voted with 208 Republicans to adopt the Senate substitute. Two Republicans and one independent lined up with 136 Democrats against it.

DRAFT DODGER ESCAPES

Grover Cleveland Bergdoll Eludes Guards While in Philadelphia Philadelphia, May 22.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft dodger and army deserter, is a fugitive from justice.

In Philadelphia on a "secret mission" that it would not be in the interests of the military service to disclose, Bergdoll eluded two guards at 2:55 yesterday afternoon and slipped from the second floor of his mother's home, Fifty-second street and Wymefield avenue.

Leaving the house by some unknown way, he jumped into his own high powered automobile and fled, accompanied by Isaac Stecker, his chauffeur, D. Clarence Giboney, counsel for Mrs. Emma Bergdoll, the slacker's mother, said that he had probably gone toward Baltimore.

SINN FEIN RAIDS

Pestoffices and Mails Looted—And Private Houses Attacked

London, May 22.—Destruction of more police barracks and military huts in Ireland and other outrages are recorded in an official report—made was made to burn the courthouse at Port Arlington, 40 miles southwest of Dublin.

In County Sligo armed masked men took a number of official books and papers from the income tax offices and burned them.

The courthouse and postoffice in County Kildare were burned, as was a private house. The Middleton and Armagh courthouses were destroyed by fire, with all their records.

A mail cart was rifled between Thurles and Kilkenny and its letters and valuables stolen.

The bitter sectarian feeling aroused in Londonderry by the recent disturbances there, according to a Central News dispatch, is finding vent in a new direction. Houses occupied by two nationalist families were attacked by masked men. One house was damaged, furniture was smashed and religious pictures were thrown into the street.

Unionist families also are being forced to leave their homes, says the report. Two unionist houses were raided for arms and the families driven out.

RETAILERS PLAYED

Senator Sherman, Republican, Declares They Are Largely Responsible for H. C. L.

Washington, May 24.—Declaring retailers were the real profiteers, Senator Sherman Republican, Illinois, said in the Senate Saturday that he and no patience with those who favored restrictive legislation for corporations making a small, just profit and proposed no action to curb retailers and jobbers. He was opposing the bill to regulate the meat packers.

"Many retailers make profits up to 250 per cent," said Senator Sherman, "but nobody talks about putting them under the Federal Trade Commission."

The Senator told of a member of Congress who recently went to a shoe store here and found a pair of shoes to his liking. He was told the price was $20, refused to pay it, and wrote the manufacturer asking the price to the retailer. The dealer had paid $8 for the shoes, Mr. Sherman said.

FIREMAN KILLED

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 22.—Frank Kein, a city foreman, was killed; Clarence Pasquet, another fireman, was probably fatally injured, and 14 others were less seriously injured as the result of a collision between fire apparatus here early yesterday while two companies were responding to an alarm.

DUPLEX Fireless STOVE

Cooks Entire Meal—Roasts Brown

Every housekeeper has her own way of preparing and flavoring different articles of food, and by following the Duplex directions for Baking, Roasting, Boiling, Stewing or Steaming, she can use her own recipe or recipes from any cook book and cook successfully in the Duplex Fireless Stove.

DUPLEX FIRELESS STOVE FEATURES

Deep Wells. A large cooking capacity, giving opportunity of cooking a larger quantity and a greater variety of food.

Cooking Vessels. More vessels and larger vessels than are furnished with the equipment of any other cooker.

Stove Legs. Can be attached to any of the Duplex Stoves and the cook will not have to stoop in putting food in stove or when taking it out.

Adjustable Catch. Stove cover may be securely or only slightly fastened, allowing more or less steam to escape to conform to the nature of the food being cooked.

Outer Stove Casing. Made of steel, eliminating warping or cracking. Casing strongly reinforced on inside so it cannot buckle.

Steam Vent in Cover. Releases the steam pressure, letting the excess of steam escape and as a result the Duplex Fireless Stove will bake and roast brown.

DREADNAUGHTS VICTORIOUS

The Dreadnaught A. C. baseball team made its ten straight wins today. Saturday they traveled to Camp Humphries and played the Civilian team of that place and administered a defeat to the former soldier boys by the score of 17 to 2.

Features of the game was the consistent hitting of the Dreadnaughts including home runs by Deavers, Quayle and Foreman.

The two games Sunday again helped the big D batting average. The Gibraltar A. C. met defeat by the score of 8 to 0. Jimmy Quayle again allowed only two hits to his opponents.

Jimmy also can play in the outfield as shown during the second game as in days gone by when this was his regular job until he found that he had a good wing.

The Dreadnaughts then proceeded to entertain the Washington Florists, a club made up of the best ball players that have visited Alexandria this year. A very bad accident happened in the first inning when Mr. Warden Dyer and athlete who has played in many games against Alexandrians, had his thumb so badly split while catching, that he was compelled to visit the hospital for treatment.

After this came the big surprise of the day when "Speeding Jones" and Taddy Schaefer of the Cardinal A. C. were assigned to battery duties for the Florists team. Much credit must be given to these youngsters as they sure did try hard, but oh how those big D. did hit and run much to the delight of the fans present. After the dust had cleared away 8 runs had crossed the pan. Game ended with the score standing 13 to 7 in Dreadnaught favor. Almost everyone of the 1500 people present stayed through to the end, as the games were well played and furnished plenty of excitement for all. Next Sunday the Dreadnaught A. C. play the Bolling Field Aviators in what should be the best game of the year. The Aviators are going strong and will be accompanied by their loyal rooters.

Come out fans and back us as we have won all ten of our games this year while the Aviators have won 14 of 15 games.

SAILOR'S MISTAKE

Enters Wrong House in Dark and Chastises Woman he Thought Was Wife for Not Writing London, May 24.—For beating the wrong woman, Alfred Hawkins, an angry seaman, has been fined $10 by a London magistrate and ordered to pay the assaulted woman compensation.

Returning home from sea at night, Hawkins entered the house next his own, dragged from the bed the woman he imagined to be his wife and chastised her because she hadn't written to him.

When a light was brought in and he saw his mistake he apologized, and went out to find his wife.

What happened when he located his wife was not revealed.

BOLSHEVIKI SEIZE FLEET

Cruisers, Transports and War Material Gained in Taking Enzeli

London, May 24.—Bolshevik forces captured the entire white fleet, consisting of six cruisers and seven transports, following their occupation of Enzeli last week, according to a bolshevik communication from Moscow.

A large quantity of war material from the Caucasus, which had belonged to Gen. Denikine, is also reported to have been taken by the bolsheviks.

WHOLE FAMILY WIPED OUT

Knoxville, Tenn., May 24.—John Johnson, well known farmer, who resided near Sweetwater, Tenn., shot and killed himself early Saturday, after confessing he had a few hours earlier killed his mother, Mrs. James Johnson, and two sisters, Misses Kate and Sallie Johnson, and seriously wounded Mrs. Bertie Cathcart, his former sweetheart.

He is reported to have attacked his mother and sisters with a hammer, and after knocking them down, cut their throats with a razor. Then, he said, he went to the home of Mrs. Cathcart and shot her with a gun. After telling two neighbors of the tragedy this morning about 2 o'clock, he placed the muzzle of the gun under his chin and killed himself.

Johnson is reported to have expected to marry Mrs. Cathcart, but his mother and sisters objected, and he has since been brooding over her marriage to Mr. Cathcart.

PENROSE SUFFERS RELAPSE

Absence May Have Far-Reaching Effect on Republican Convention

Philadelphia, Pa., May 24.—United States Senator Boies Penrose, who has been ill at his home here for some time, had a relapse Saturday and was reported tonight to be in a serious condition. The physicians said that, although the senator is very ill, he is no immediate danger.

Henry G. Maas, third officer of the American steamship Sutherland, who dived overboard and rescued two longshoremen who had fallen into the water. One man slipped from a nearby dock and the other in an effort to catch him as he fell was dragged overboard. Maas jumped into the icy water, held one man up with one hand and swam to the other whom he pushed against a piling and held there until aid arrived. Maas, who weighs only 125 pounds, now has a record of five lives saved.

CARTER GLASS BOOM FOR PRESIDENCY

valuable character as the Federal reserve act, and that no Secretary of the Treasury, serving for such a short period, has won more distinction than marked his administration of that office.

"I believe there would be little doubt of his nomination except for his being a Southern man and the strong sentiment for him which has already developed in other sections indicates that any reason that may have once existed against the nomination of a candidate from the South has about worn out. There has been a great deal of talk on the subject at the capital, and I have yet to hear any question raised that Glass would not meet every requirement of the presidency, however complicated and difficult the problems to be handled."

fied with a number of Masonic organizations being a member of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, Old Dominion Commandery No. 11, Knights Templar and Acca Temple Mystic Shrine and a Scottish Rite Mason. He also was a member of the National Association of Machinists No. 174.

The body was taken to the residence of his father-in-law, James M. Wilkins, 509 1-2 South Fairfax street, where the funeral will take place at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. P. P. Phillips, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and the interment will be made in Union cemetery. Members of the various Masonic bodies of which he was a member will attend the funeral.

Reports that Turner would be lynched by a mob from this city were received at midnight last night by the Alexandria county authorities and fifteen of the soldiers from Fort Myer throughout the remainder of the night patrolled the grounds around the jail ready for action should a mob put in its appearance. They were in command of Sgt. C. C. Boyer. Ineffective efforts were made in this city it is reported to secure a mob to make the trip in automobiles. However, only a few appeared eager for the trip realizing it would be an ineffectual effort owing to the close proximity of the county jail to Fort Myer and another thing lacking was a leader. By 10 o'clock, this morning those who contemplated taking action into their own hands were turned away by the police and Turner it is not thought will be the victim of any mob violence. As stated above Commonwealth's Attorney Frank Hall has no apprehension of any such thing.

The case of Turner will be presented to the grand jury by Commonwealth's Attorney Hall at the regular term of court which will be June 21. It is expected that he will be indicted on that day and date set for his trial by Judge Samuel G. Brent as Turner will be tried in the circuit court for Alexandria county before Judge Brent.

Reports from Washington are to the effect that Turner is a "bad" negro having been arrested on number of occasions. Turner on one occasion was a prisoner in the same cell he now occupies in the Alexandria county jail being suspected of being implicated in a criminal assault case at Luna Park. Inspector Clifford L. Grant of the Washington Police Department is of the opinion that in the arrest of Turner the Virginia authorities have in custody the negro guilty of many assaults in the District of Columbia.

Turner when repeatedly asked why he shot Moore stated that he didn't start to kill him, but he was broke and needed the money and would not have fired had not Moore fired, and this got him so worked up that he used his pistol.

Alexandria police as soon as they were notified of the murder went in their patrol wagon making a record run to the scene of the crime. They at once started out in search of the fugitive, they taking one road and the county authorities the other road.

Tells of Attack

"Morgan was all the world to me, and one of the finest men who ever lived. I had been going with him a long time. We were just as close to each other as could be. We expected to be married some time. He was noble and good, the best man that ever lived," said Miss Clark in an interview with The Herald yesterday.

"Last night we had been out for a drive and were just about to return to Washington when the awful thing happened. We had not been stopped there beside the road long when suddenly a terrible face was outlined in the darkness as a revolver was pushed at Morgan's face.

"A coarse voice muttered 'Give me what you've got.' Morgan told the man he had nothing. I screamed and jumped out of the car. The negro backed off as I ran around behind the car, and said to Morgan: 'Don't try anything or I'll shoot.'"

"He then turned to me and said: 'What have you got?' I tore my gloves off to get my rings and wrist watch, but just about this time Morgan had found his revolver and the negro, evidently seeing something was wrong, sprang to one side, and the shooting began. I don't know how many times Morgan fired.

"As he fell in the road he said: 'Pearl, he's got me.' He could hardly talk, except in a kind of horrible gurgle."

"I ran back about fifty feet from the car when the negro caught me. I prayed to him that he take my jewelry. He laughed. I fought and pleaded with him. Morgan was lying still in the road, but I couldn't believe he was dead. The negro told me he was shot and put his hand to his right thigh."

"When he grabbed me by the throat his hand was dripping with blood. I screamed and fought him. I cried: 'How can you be such a beast after that over there?' He only laughed and seized me, kissing me twice. Just then he threw me down and started away."

"I was too stupefied to move. He then came back. I fought weakly but my strength was about gone. Finally he cursed me and started away again. I turned back once more, muttering something. But just at this moment for some unaccountable reason, he left me, going toward Morgan's body. That was the last I saw of him."

"I went to Morgan. A stream of blood was running down his right temple. I couldn't stand it. I don't know where I ran or how long, but finally I came to the Highway Bridge. I saw a car coming and cried out to them. It happened to be four men from Alexandria. They brought me into Washington."

That Morgan Moore lost his life due to a faulty shell is the opinion expressed by Washington detectives who examined the small pearl handle, .32 calibre revolver found a few inches from his left hand. An examination of the weapon made by the Washington police disclosed there were two cartridges the hammer had struck but failed to explode the shell. Evidently before he could pull the trigger again he was killed by a bullet which penetrated the heart, as the pistol when found was cocked and Moore apparently was pressing on the trigger when killed.

The question of whether or not Turner will be tried in the circuit court for Alexandria county or in the United States Court for the Eastern District will be decided this afternoon and will be based upon a survey made this afternoon by County Engineer Garrett. The purpose of the survey is to determine whether the murder occurred in a government reservation or whether it is the state property.

RICHMOND THEATRE

A photoplay as breezy as the great New England coast where the principal events of the drama take place, "Sinners," a Realart production, which has thrilled theatre goers elsewhere in a no uncertain manner, is to have its presentation in this city tonight at the Richmond Theatre.

This stirring screen drama concerning the fortunes of a New England girl who leaves home and goes to the big city in search of work is an adaptation from the Owen Davis stage success of the same name.

"Sinners" is not a melodrama as many will recall who saw it on the speaking stage, but a true characterization of life in the small town where everything and everybody moves by rule and route. Wm. S. Hart in "Wagon Tracks" and Chapter 14 of Adventures of Ruth" will be shown at the Incomar today.

NEW YORK HIPPODROME

"Paragically speaking," as one of the Knights of Columbus and men would say, the coming K-C Minstrels promise to exceed even the highest expectations. A considerable number of out of town men have been present at the different rehearsals, and so impressed have they been with the talent displayed, that already the office of the booking agent has been swarmed with requests that the Knights of Columbus Minstrels repeat their entertainment in many of the large nearby cities. There was one instance where a prominent Knight of Columbus from New York City asked to have the Minstrel group journey to his city, stating that in case the local troupe would be able to accept his invitation, he felt sure that he would be able to secure for the occasion the great New York Hippodrome. Inasmuch as the hippodrome has a seating capacity of 10,000, the local members feel highly complimented, and provided a sufficient number of the group will be free to make the trip, the offer will be accepted. This, however, is a matter that cannot be decided upon at the present time, being entirely dependent upon the wishes of the majority of those belonging to the show. Remember the dates, June 17th and 18th; also remember that if you miss this show your regret will follow, if not precede, you to the cemetery.

KILLED BY WOOD ALCOHOL

James Connors, Aged 60, Found Dead in Pennsylvania Ave. Room. James Connors, 60 years old, living at 349 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, Washington, was found dead in his room yesterday. Police declare that death was due to wood alcohol poisoning.

Relatives of the dead man were notified. An investigation is being made by police to locate the sources from which Connors procured the poison.

Welcome Relief From the Tortures of Rheumatism

Can Come Only From the Proper Treatment.

Many forms of rheumatism are caused by millions of tiny germs that infest the blood, and until the blood is absolutely freed of these germs, there is no real relief in sight.

The most satisfactory remedy for rheumatism is S. S. S. because it is one of the most thorough blood purifiers known to medical science. This fine old remedy cleanses the blood of impurities, and acts as an antidote to the germs of rheumatism.

S. S. S. is sold by druggists everywhere. For valuable literature and advice address Chief Medical Adviser, 107 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

CARRANZA KILLED

Mexico City, May 24.—Emiliano Carranza, deposed president of Mexico, with 265 members of his party, has been killed near the town of Tlaxcala-Tongo, in the state of Puebla, according to advices to headquarters of both Generals Alvaro Obregon and Pablo Gonzales.

Monterey, May 24.—American citizens and British subjects were eye witnesses to the killing of President Carranza, according to word received here yesterday from Mexico City.

The Americans and British composed a foreign colony of Nechax, where the hydro-electric power plant that supplies Mexico City is located. Carranza and his escort were near this colony when the first chief and his aides were slain.

Carranza was back tracking along the electric line to Mexico City, to surrender to Obregon, it is said.

FREIGHT CARRYING AIRPLANES

First Aerial Route Will Connect New York and Chicago

Cleveland, Ohio, May 24.—An aerial freight and mail transportation system to eventually employ 2,000 air-planes in serving 70 American cities, will be inaugurated July 1, with Cleveland as its headquarters, according to announcements made here Saturday by officers of the Aerial Transport Corporation, a $30,000,000 corporation, which is to operate the service.

Fifty four planes will be placed in service July 1 on the first of ten proposed main routes, a course from New York to Chicago by way of Cleveland.

Service on other routes and extensions will begin as soon as planes and equipment are available, according to Colonel Alfred W. Harris, vice president and treasurer of the corporation, a former army flier.

"Only express, freight and mail will be carried during the first month," said Colonel Harris. "Ultimately there will be passenger service later."

In addition to those between New York and Chicago, routes will radiate from Cleveland to Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Detroit, Harris said.

COMPLAINS OF BLACK TROOPS

German Assembly Intends to Appeal to League of Nations to End Alleged Brutality

Berlin, May 22.—Stormy scene in the meeting of the German Assembly Thursday arose over the discussion of the employment by the French of black troops in the occupied area. Adolf Koester, Minister of Foreign Affairs, replying to an interpellation complaining of acts of savage brutality by these troops towards women and children, only a tithe of whose horrors were known, said that protests from the United States, Great Britain, Sweden and Norway had made as little impression on the French government as the German protests, and Germany intended to appeal to the league of nations so that the moral pressure of the whole world could be brought to bear.

Franz Zeitz, Independent Socialist, then caused an uproar by reminding the interpellators that they had said nothing about the acts of immoral brutality committed by German soldiers in Russia, Belgium and elsewhere.

AMPUTATES FIREMAN'S LEG

Baltimore Surgeon's Herculean Effort to Save the Life of Week Victim

Baltimore, Md., May 24.—In a head on collision between a passenger and freight train on the Maryland and Pennsylvania Railroad, 5 miles from here Saturday night, one man was killed and several seriously injured. The man killed was J. W. Blaney, of Delta, Pa., engineer of the passenger train.

Dr. J. M. T. Finney, Baltimore surgeon, heard the crash at the house of a golf club. With a carpenter's saw and a penknife he amputated one of the legs of Luther Peyton, also of Delta, fireman of the passenger train. Peyton was held in the wreckage of the engine cab while the operation was performed. He may die.

WARNS OF FAMINE

Albany, N. Y., May 24.—Herbert Myrick, editor of Farm and Home, declared yesterday that in event of unfavorable weather and poor crops there will be a food famine in the United States. He declared the result will be determined in the next 90 days, and urged repeal of the State daylight saving law.

He estimated butter would sell at $2 a pound, eggs at $3 a dozen, potatoes at $15 a bushel and flour at $40 a barrel next winter, unless there is a maximum production on the farms this summer.

Myrick asserts the law takes on "four from the working day of the farmer to give an hour for pleasure to the dwellers in the cities."

TORNADOES IN NORTHWEST

Minneapolis, Minn., May 24.—Tornadoes smashing their way through the northwest late Saturday killed four persons and seriously wounded a dozen others, according to reports reaching here last night. The dead were reported from Castle Rock, where the storm was reported to have razed every building.

(Tor. v. dmed mo dmed on ed hd Prairieville, Minn., was also leveled according to reports. The stricken area was swept by near cloud-bursts following the tornado. Streets were reported running rivers. Streets were swollen and roads and fields were inundated. The storm struck near Northfield, split in two, tearing down houses as one side swept through Castle Rock and the other tore his way southeast through Prairieville. Heavy rains came in the wake of the wind. Rochester reported two feet of running water in the streets there.

HEADLESS BODY FOUND

Decapitated Corpse Bore Name on Key in Pocket as Means of Identification

Fayetteville, N. C., May 24.—The headless body of a white man, believed to be B. Kicks, New York, was found on the railroad tracks here early Saturday. It is believed he fell from a train some time during last night. In the pockets of the victim's clothing were found three pawn tickets, one for a watch, one for a violin and another for a violin bow and a keyring with two keys, one of which bore the name "B. Kicks, New York." The head was completely severed from the body.

BLOOD KILLS DISEASE GERMS

Pure, Healthy Blood Destroys Germs, Removes the Waste Tissues and Rebuilds Bone and Muscle

If Your Blood is Weak, Don't Delay

Take Gude's Pepto-Mangan, the Red Blood Builder

In your body are two gallons (more or less) of blood, which is constantly at work keeping your system free of germs, removing the waste tissues, and building up new strength in bone and muscle.

This blood must be healthy or your resistance to disease and fatigue will be lowered, you will lose weight, and both body and mind will have less vigor.

For building up blood weakened by overwork, illness or other causes, Gude's Pepto-Mangan, for years prescribed by physicians, is now generally known as a prompt and harmless tonic.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan soon produces marked beneficial results. The tired, worn-out, run-down feeling disappears. And in its stead a vigorous wholesomeness and happiness proves that the blood has been supplied with sorely needed richness to supply the entire system with renewed strength.

When you buy Pepto-Mangan at your druggist's, be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. You can get it in either liquid or tablet form. If the name "Gude's" is not on the package it is not Pepto-Mangan.—Advt.
